President Kathy's Chatter

"Together making a difference through service"

I just left our meeting. We had a great speaker, Kerri Phillips from Merci Multiplied. She talked about the numerous girls/young women they help. She had a little contest for the most correct answers to her questions. My table won! We received 3 tickets to their Tea along with a tour of their treatment house in Lincoln on 12/5 from 2:30-4. We have an extra ticket. If anyone would like to join Paula and I, just give us a jingle.

The Holiday season has definitely begun. I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Operation Cratchit will be celebrated this year on Tuesday, 12/1 at Stanford Settlement in the new Teen Center at the back of the Senior Center. Please join us at noon for a fun lunch and social time. Bring your donations of non-perishable foods, toys, wrapping paper and/or money for the money tree. We may even sing a carol or two.

Our Candy Roll Wrapping Party is on 12/2 beginning at 5:30 at Paula's home. She is serving a light dinner. And don't forget our Club will be serving dinner at the Stanford Settlement Senior Dinner on Tuesday, 12/22 at 4:00 pm. It is a fun gathering and the seniors really enjoy this, so come and join us. Whew! What a schedule we have and we still need time for family, shopping, parties and Santa. If I don't see you, I wish you all a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!! Our first luncheon meeting next year will be on 1/12.
